Masterpiece Theater

This year pictures many new dimensions about and around the Art Department. The faculty members that are teaching this year are Mrs. Kaufman and Mrs. Heffernan. They both are striving to increase the ability of the Art Department. For second semester there will be a new class introduced call Sculpture. New tools this year include an air brush. The F.H.S. Art Department is becoming more and more recognized throughout the school.

The 81-82 Industrial Arts program has progressed since the end of the end of the 1981 school year. The Vocational Auto's I has been changed to a two hour class and is being taught by Mr. Allen. The class will allow more time to finish projects started and to allow more time to cover new material. The Industrial Arts also has a new teacher, Mr. Baidoon, who is teaching Vocational Machine shop.

Seven teachers make up the Industrial Arts Department and teach a variety of classes. Some of these are Vocational Autos, Electronics, Vocational Machines, Autos, Woods, Carpentry, Production Arts, Photos, and Drafting.

The 1981 FHS music program produced many new ideas. The Strings and Orchestra progam became a respected group of musicians. Other bands included the Symphony and Concert groups. All the bands, including Marching Band, performed at Band-o-Rama in November. Mr. Hoemke is the band director.

This is Mrs. Koltz's second year as choir director at FHS. She also directs three specialty groups, Guys and Dolls, Twelvetones, and Falconaires. This year's fundraiser was a sale of cheese and sausage. With the money made a new stereo was bought for the classroom. Mrs. Koltz has added many new ideas to the FHS music program and her success is sure to continue.

Physical Education at FHS involves many different kinds of classes. Every student must have different kinds of classes. Every student must have six weeks of swimming. This insures that everyone will know water safety rules and basic swimming strokes.

Besides the activities in gym class, students can elect Advanced Phys. Ed. or work as student assistants. "To improve the student's physical fitness, whether it be through the swimming or phys. ed. classes, is stressed. A lot of emphasis is put on it," department head Miss Reynolds explained.

Students involved in FHS's Special Education program are involved in a variety of classes. The two objectives of the Special Ed department are to first support special education students who are in regular classes and second to raise the skills of students while in the resource room. Besides working with teachers, Mrs. Kissinger, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Brown and Mr. Rodger, the students are involved with Mrs. Scobie, Vocational Adjustment coordinator. Mrs. Wedock, School Social Worker, Mr. Schwartz, School Psychologist, and Mrs. Henderson, Speech and Language Consultant.

Special Education students are serviced by people who contribute greatly to the learning and programming of their schools. In addition student volunteers worked throughout the year with Mrs. Kissinger and Special Ed aide Ms. Olson. One activity was in November and was a Thanksgiving dinner, complete with costumes to end an American History unit.

The Blue and White staff is responsible for writing, laying out and organizing and publishing of the school newspaper. It is a valuable tool of communication to the FHS students. Mrs. Gagniuk is the new advisor this year. The staff is composed of 19 juniors and seniors working under editor, Dave Fernquist.

The school print shop under the direction of Mr. Zaleski prints the Blue and White every 3 to 4 weeks. Writing news stories, featues, editorials, and getting ads have to be completed for each issue. Deadlines and organization were the key to success of the Blue and White each issue.

Working on the Rollcall this year was a group of 34 the largest staff in history of FHS's yearbook classes. Together we used our fine journalistic abilities to create a masterpiece. Building the layouts of pages from shots our photographers and Jerry Jakacki of Focal Point Studios took, involved many hours. Junior John Asselin, Business Manager, assumed all financial responsibility.

The staff was constantly striving to meet the deadline which were crucial to the development of this final product. Under the direction of co-editors, seniors Kim Fournier and Barb Harris pages were assembled and readied for our publisher. In her first year at FHS, Mrs. Gagniuk, formerly of East Junior High, was advisor to the Rollcall.

The Southwest Oakland Vocational Center, (S.W.O.V.E.C.) is designed to give students training they need for employment upon graduatin. Students need a total of 900 hours for certification (except for cosmetology, which needs 1500 hours). The school serves 8 different school districts. Some of the various classes offered are: Autos, drafting, medical, TOPS, foods, dental, floral, industrial arts, greenhouse, cosmetology, and computer classes.

Classes run in the morning from 8:00 to 10:30 or extended day which runs from 2:10 to 4:40. Students receive 3 credits per year. Most students find Voc a fun and rewarding experience.

The Administrators are the law makers of the school. The administration is made up of principal, Mr. Potter, Assistant principals Mr. Allison and Mr. Scobie, and Administative assistant Mr. Shewbridge.

Mr. Shewbridge, Mr. Allison, and Mr. Scobie all share responsibility for the freshman. Mr. Shewbridge works with seniors, Mr. Allison works with juniors and Mr. Scobie works with sophomores. They all have their problems, but it all seems to work out for the best in the end.

Mr. Potter is responsible for the running of the whole school and the well being of the student body. The four work together as a team to make FHS a relaxed and learning environment.

FHS's counseling staff is very busy. Composed of Mr. Hamway, Mrs. Kalec, Mr. Lekovish and Mr. Whitledge they give personal counseling and help students select classes They are also helpful to seniors on making plans for after high school. At some time during the school year the counselors had an appointment with all FHS students.

Orientations, testings, communication of guidance information to students, referral of students to school and community agencies, educational and career planning and placement of students are among the many guidance services available. This year the counselors were also in charge ofthe Career Information Center located at the east end of the library. The counseling department is a fine help to FHS students.

The secretaries keep our school running smoothly. Mrs. Stinchcomb takes care of Mr. Potter's correspondence, answers phones, she calls and gets substitute teachers every morning. She also does all payroll records for teachers and substitutes.

Mrs. Looser does the bookkeeping for the school, answers phones. She also handles all purchase orders.

Mrs. Shannon is the one we all probably know the best. She's the one who we check in with when we are late. She makes sure that our names are on the excused list when we are excused. She also sends home the attendance letters that informs parents of our absences. FHS could not run smoothly without our fine group of secretaries.

Culture Identity

A trip to Frankenmuth in mid December started the year for the International Activities Club. Mrs. Wildt served as adviser to the new club. The club was organized to get students acquainted with ethnic activities and to allow the FHS foreign exchange students a chance to be involved with school activities. Members had a chance to learn about other cultures as well as exchange information on their own cultures. Meetings were held in Mrs. Wildt's room usually before school with Sandra Yee serving as President. Gail Dost served as Vice President and Jennifer Vincent aided by acting as Secretary-Treasurer.

Emmy Awards

Special Olympics was present once again this year with Mrs. Kissinger advising. The Special Olympics was established to provide athletic competition in a variety of sports for special individuals also to encourage physical fitness and prepare them for lifetime sports involvement. Clinics and practice sessions were held before events, usually during first hour. An early October bowling tournament opened the 1981-82 season. Many winter events took place such as cross country. Skiing and snowshoe clinic, all area games, and state winter games at Sugar Loaf Mountain in Traverse City. The gymnastic and swimming competitions were held in mid-March. Track & Field competitions were held in early May at Troy High School and State summer games were attended at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant.

Issues and Answers

The 1981-82 Farmington Debate Squad was made up of students from Farmington, Harrison, and North Farmington High schools. The squad opened the season by helping the Kiwanis sell peanuts in Downtown Farmington Center in mid-September. A new point system for determining year-end awards was added. A special Christmas surprise party was given for Mr. Smith, adviser and coach, to thank him for all the excellent coaching he did during the first half of the season. The debaters participated in a state-wide tournament held on Mackinaw Island. A banquet was held at the end of the year to hand out well deserved awards. The Price is Right

The English Too Club (or E.T.C.) was designed "To offer students activities that will enrich their cultural background," according to Mrs. Gearhart, adviser. Fundraisers included selling M & M's, "Salami for Mommy", stuffed animals also the spring auction. E.T.C. members went to see Camelot, Evita, and The King and I plus other plays at Meadow Brook early in the year. The meetings were held once a month in the auditorium. Jennifer Buss served as President, Paul Tomilo as Secretary, and Jane Neuhauser as Treasurer. The club went to eat in Greektown and participated in a chocolate/cookie exchange. A sleigh ride was taken in December. "This club is rarely limited as to the type of activities that it can offer to its members," added Mrs. Gearhart.

To Tell The Truth

Forensics is defined in the dictionary as "the art of study of argumentive discourse." Forensic members are not debators or actors. There are 12 events the team members can enter, anything from a dramatic monologue to radio broadcasting. The tournaments are held at different high schools and competition is sometimes tough. The team is still young, but with a great coach like Mrs. Van Horn, the team can rise and overcome, and most of all, bring home trophies!!!!

Get Smart

The 1982 National Honor Society is a service organization of 26 active members.

Induction of new junior and senior members was in May. Wednesday morning meetings were held twice a month in order to plan upcoming activities for the year. Events throughout the year included a welcoming party in September at Kim Pogue's house and a visit to the Williamsburg Nursing Home in December. The Sadie Hawkins Dance in March was sponsored by the Honor Society. Also throughout the school year tutoring services to FHS students were offered by the group. Coast To Coast

The German Club was formed to give students at FHS a better understanding of the German culture. Many trips and activities were undertaken by the German club members. Ms. Harmala was the adviser.

During the fall the German Club visited Frankenmuth, saw the music and dance of Germany and Austria of the Stratton Mountain Boys at the Rackham building, sold imported calendars, and had a Christmas party.

Spring activities included the popular Valentine card sale, viewing the movie "Night Crossing", and a trip by train to a German restaurant in Ann Arbor.

The Computer Math Club was organized this year "to encourage mathmatics excellence" stated Mr. Schaldenbrand, adviser of the club. Scholarship monies were made available to program writers and the winners of math computer tests. Edgar Kalns served as president and Dan Schroeder was vice president. They were aided by Scott Kerstein as secretary and Tim Snyder as treasurer. The Computer Math Club sold M & M's to raise funds to buy new equipment. Computers were able to be signed out and taken home for the weekends and during the summer for members of the club. The club had many formal lectures, one was a Time Space Plane from a Eastern Michigan University Professor. Advanced Placement Three students were invited to all lectures.

The 1982 Marching Band is 75 strong. With one of their best seasons show wise, they made quite a hit. Under the direction of co-drum majors Cindy Martin and Dave Runyan, they worked as a close-knit family. In ten weeks they performed 8 times, including a competition at the MSBOA Marching Band Festival, where they received a rating of a II, which is excellent for them. With their own officers to run the organization, the marching band is a group with a lot of talent. With all the hard work and effort made this year, and the exceptional help from the director Mr. Hoemke and the drumline director Mike Randall, the marching band couldn't be any better.

There were a few bright spots this season for members of the golf team. The year started pretty well with a record number of golfers trying out and the team winning their pro-season scrimmages. Once the season started, things just didn't fall into place. They finished the year with a 1-9 overall record. Their only victory was over Southfield. According to Coach E. Schoeneich, in-spite of the losses, the team spirit was still quite high.

There is no other way to describe the 1981 Girl's Basketball team then "tremendous", in Coach Lekovish's own words. The team had a 6-0 League record and a 20-3 overall. "I'm proud of them," commented Mr. Lekovish.

The Falcons were Interlakes League Champions. They lost to Mercy in the Districts by a score of 44-50 but no one could deny being proud of them. Chris Looser, Stacy Green, and Lisa Borchanian all were members of the 1st Team All Conference, Mary Ann Kunhlein and Sue Bergerson made 2nd team, and Linda Barbrick received an Honorable Mention.

Another honor bestowed upon FHS is the coach of the Year Award to Coach Lekovish. This was Mr. Lekovish's last season of coaching the girls' basketball team. He has been the coach since its very inception in 1975, and has left with a winning program.

Each team member displayed great effort, as well as superior athletic ability throughout the exciting season for FHS. The stands were always filled with enthusiastic fans all season long.

When the Class of '82 looks back on their Senior year, one of the brightest spots will be the Girl's Basketball winning season.

The Girls Varsity Volleyball Team has had a good season this year. The team which has a lot of talent somewhat lacked in their passing and winning capabilities. The team had a lot of hustlers and scramblers, but they did not seem to work together until the end of the season. The two captains were the only seniors on the team, Chris Looser and Stacy Green. Mr. Ron Shortt was the coach.

The team which has gained a lot of experience from Mr. Shortt had more plays prior to last year's team. They ran plays such as the fake, quickset, shoot, and tandum or X. With these plays the girls were hoping to catch other teams off guard which they often did, especially at Invitationals such as Canton, Edsel Ford, and Schoolcraft.

The 1981-82 J.V. Cheerleading squad was composed of seven girls who gave it their all to support the J.V. football and basketball teams. Captains this year were junior Sharilyn Turner and sophomore Tammy Niedzolkowski. At Homecoming, the cheerleaders helped cheer with the varsity and alumni squads, as well as helped to make spirit signs. Without their enthusiasm, many of the games would be deserted and dull.

After school work for seniors is essential especially if they don't want to miss the festive events on the weekends. Beside earning extra money, they gain a knowledge and understanding of the business world. Many FHS students are employed daily in the Farmington community.

"January Thaw" made its second performance in the history of FHS on November 13 and 14, under the direction of Miss Pieron. The play begins with the Gage family buying an old house in the country and fixing it up. In the lease for their new home is a statement saying that as long as the former owners, the Rockwoods, are still alive they have the right to live in the house. The play goes on to show all the main conflicts they have from June to January. In January they all seem to thaw out, coming to an agreement on living together and happily ever after.

What's Happening

The Spanish Club has 75 members composed of first, second and third year Spanish Classes. Activities are planned by the Spanish Club Council which meets on Tuesday mornings. One activity was the Christmas party. "Navidad en Acapulco" held at Becky Edwards' House. Mrs. Daniels was the club's adviser and chief taco maker.

The French Club was started this year as a great addition to activities at FHS. The main purpose of forming the French Club was to give French students a better understanding of the French culture. Mrs. Wildt was the adviser.

A Tribute To Carl Seech

Carl was a friend to all of us. To some he was more than a friend ... he was a brother. He always seem to be there when we needed him. He touched everyone he knew and never let anyone down. Some of us grew up with him; others just knew him through high school. But no matter how long the friendships were, they were all very special and will never be forgotten. We all loved Carl very much, and his memory will never die.

- Margret Richards

Take reins of power
Students learn government ropes
By Craig Piechura

The most important lesson some students learned on Student Government Day was that Farmington City Hall is located in Farmington, not Farmington Hills.

Kim Fournier, elected by Farmington High School students as a city council member for the day, sheepishly explained that she was late for the regular city council meeting Monday night because she went to Farmington Hills City Hall instead. Other students admitted they had to ask for directions too.

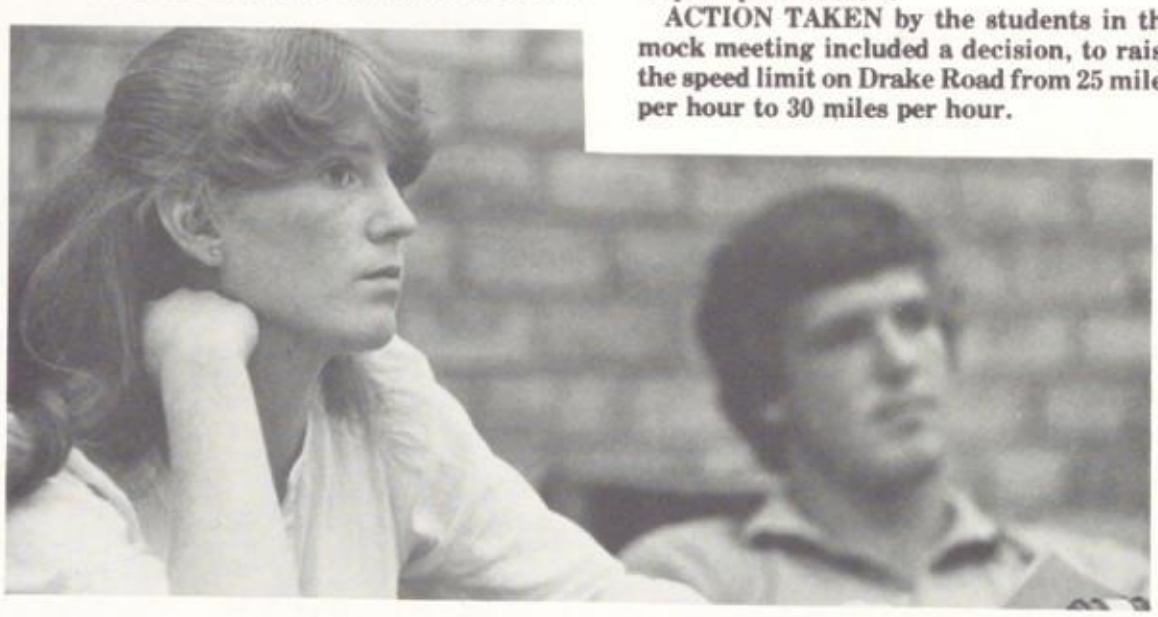
The following day, Fournier and 17 other students changed places with their adult counterparts in city government, the police department and the courts as one of the annual events surrounding Michigan Week.

They were given a tour of city facilities by City Manager Robert Deadman and treated to a lunch at the Steak and Ale restaurant by the Farmington Rotary Club. The highlight of the day's festivities was a mock city council meeting chaired by students who requested reports from students acting as department heads.

On the agenda at the meeting was a discussion about solving annual problems over graduation parties by high school seniors that spill over into the city parks and streets.

Like their adult counterparts, students found no solution to the perennial problem and recommended no change in the posted 10 p.m. park curfew.

ACTION TAKEN by the students in the mock meeting included a decision, to raise the speed limit on Drake Road from 25 miles per hour to 30 miles per hour.



Paul Hickey filled in as city clerk.

Edge of Night

Seniors celebrated the most special affair of the year, PROM, at the Fairlane Manor in Dearborn on June 11th. Music by the band, Contraband, kept everyone dancing, especially when Magic Power, the class song, was played. Dinner began at 7:30 p.m. — the main course was roast prime rib of beer. Chaperoning the dance were Mrs. Gagniuk, Mr. Krupka, Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Van Horn, Mrs. Kalec, and the administration.
